Representative A. A. Wiley, of Alabama, who served in Cuba as Gen Lawton's Chief of Staff and Civil Governor of the Eastern Province, and a member of the last four congresses, died at Hot Springs, Va. Wednesday. He was about fifty years old.

The saving of thousands of dollars a year to pensioners throughout the United States and of many hundreds to those in Kentucky will be effected by a plan which will soon go into effect in the pension offices throughout the country. The pensioners will be sent free postage envelopes with the vouchers for their quarterly stipends, and will not, as formerly, have to pay return postage on them.

Forty-six petitions are pending at the Post-office Department for the establishment of rural free delivery routes in Kentucky. Within the past fiscal year only twenty-four new routes have been established in the State, but the small number is due to the fact that Kentucky has approximately 700 of these routes now in operation. The First Congressional district has the greatest number of routes, 120, and the Second is next with 109, and the Fourth has 101. The Eleventh, or mountain district, has the smallest number, seven, with seven petitions for new ones pending before the department.

EDITORS ELECT OFFICERS FOR 1908.

ent Stephens and his assistants had prepared delightful refreshments consisting of ices, cakes and cigars and those who desired were shown through the various buildings and over the grounds. Mr. L. H. Davis welcomed the visitors upon behalf of the asylum officials and a number of speeches followed.

Returning to the city the party repaired to Hotel Latham where supper was served, after which a stroll over the business section was taken. All of the five banks were lighted up and reception committees were on hand to show the visitors through these institutions, which are the pride of the city. No city of its size can boast better ones.

From 8:30 until 10:30 an informal reception was held at the hotel, which was attended by hundreds of citizens. Mr. T. C. Underwood was master of ceremonies and speeches were made by Prof. H. Clay Smith, Rev. C. H. H. Branch, Rev. Millard A. Jenkins, upon the part of the citizens, and Lew B. Brown, Col. E. Polk Johnson and Hon. A. O. Stanley for the association. At 10:30 the editors boarded the special train and returned to Cerulean all very enthusiastic over the warm hospitality and many courtesies which had been shown them in Hopkinsville.

At the business session Thursday, prizes were awarded for job printing. The Cadiz Record got several of the best prizes, including that for general display at the afternoon session the annual election was held and the following officers were chosen, all without opposition:

President, Tim Needham, of the Williamstown Courier.

Vice President, Thos. C. Underwood, of the Hopkinsville New Era.

Secretary-Treasurer, W. Vernon Richardson, Danville.

The banquet Thursday night was the crowning feature of the reunion. Mr. E. A. Jonas, of the Henderson Journal, was toastmaster and he scored a big hit in that difficult position.

The banquet was served under the personal direction of Mr. W. A. Wilgus, who represented Capt. Pool, and was a course dinner, most elegantly prepared and delightfully served.

The speaking began shortly after 10 o'clock and lasted until midnight. The first speaker introduced was President Needham, who complimented everybody and wound up by appointing as his executive committee A. D. Miller, Richmond; E. Barry, Benton; W. B. Ha'deman; Louisville; R. R. Perry, Winchester, and H. P. Summers, Smith's Grove.

W. Vernon Richardson was called upon to explain "Why I am not Married," which he attempted to do with poor success, his principle reason being that some other fellow invariably captured the girl just before he won his case.

Mr. T. C. Underwood discussed "Silence is Golden" in his inimitable way, interspersing his happy hits with several good stories.

Mr. Green R. Keller, of the Carlisle Mercury, talked about "The Good We Do" and presented the serious side of the press for a few minutes.

At this point Mr. Ward Headley, a visitor from Princeton, was called upon and made a brief speech of welcome and good cheer.

Then came Miss S. R. Marcum, the bright young lady editor of Columbia, who made one of the wittiest speeches of the evening and brought down the house by asking the help of the editors in her efforts to find a husband. There were cries of "Richardson," and Miss Marcum explained to Mr. Richardson that her town was a 20-miles walk from the railroad, if he decided to come to Columbia.

Mr. Chas. M. Meacham was assigned the subject, "The Mayor's Nest," and his speech eulogizing the Pennyrile district and especially Trigg county as the best "nest" on earth, was the last of the evening.

Resolutions thanking Capt. R. S. Pool for his royal entertainment and numerous special courtesies were adopted with a rising vote and the banquet closed just before 12 o'clock. Most of the editors will depart for their homes to-day.

Reception to Editors.

Thursday afternoon from five to six o'clock a reception was tendered to the visiting newspaper people at the hospitable home of Mr. W. M. Stice, near the hotel. A number of the ladies of Cerulean assisted in entertaining and pretty young ladies presided at the punch bowls. The refreshments consisted of sandwiches, cakes and punch and were greatly enjoyed by the large crowd that attended. In the hall sprigs of pennyril were pinned on the coats of the "Pennyrile" editors. Mr. Stice is the proprietor of the flouring mill at Cerulean and is a prominent citizen. Among the ladies who assisted Mrs. Stice in doing the honors were Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Turney and several others.

Notes By the Way.

Bob Brown had to leave Thursday

Will Wilgus was a most valuable assistant to Capt. Pool and his excellent management of the entertainments was everywhere apparent, both here and at Cerulean.

Capt. H. H. Denhardt got in with Jonas and others, just in time to attend the banquet.

Capt. R. S. Pool, the host; Col. E. Polk Johnson and Green R. Keller, the three old Confederates, had their pictures taken in a group. An artist also took a group picture of the whole body.

Miss Mertelle Greenwell, of Bullitt, was the luckiest lady of the party. She not only beat the men shooting, but won several ladies' contests, caught the biggest fish and was the first to find a four-leaf clover in the lawn search.

Henry Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lawrence and pretty little baby, Charlotte, were on hand to do the honors for Trigg county. The Cadiz Record came out Thursday with the best account of the meeting that has appeared in any paper.

DWELLING DESTROYED.

House and Contents Burned Yesterday Morning.

The residence of Mr. C. D. Hammons, on West Nineteenth street, was discovered in flames about 8:30 yesterday morning and although the fire department was on hand in a very few minutes, the roof was destroyed, together with most of the contents. It is not known how the fire originated, but one theory is that matches in a dresser became ignited in some manner.

The loss is about $1,000. Mr. Hammons had $800 insurance on the house and $400 on the furniture.

R. P. Ernst, of Covington, nominated Burnam and he was elected by a vote of 14 to 12. His election is regarded as a defeat of the "post-office ring" and a victory for Ernst. The ring backed Frank Fisher, of Paducah.

By a tie vote of 13 to 13 the Kentucky delegation last night failed to elect.

The court holds that the Legislature had no right to grant any such power and that the streets must be sprinkled with some other funds and the property owners cannot be taxed as they are for gutters and sidewalks.
